Woman Boss of Lumbermen. Mrs. Mary Gregory of Damariscotta, Me., is the first woman to have charge of a gang of lumbermen. She is the mother of six children and until a few months ago did all the work of cooking and caring for a gang of 22 woodsmen besides her own family. Finding that she had still many idle hours on her hands, she applied for work as woodchopper. She soon shiners and violators in the mountains proved herself such an expert chop-per and sawyer that a few weeks ago she pitted herself against the best two men of the camp. She not only did more work than either of them, but more than both together. It was soon after this that the owner of the lumber camps appointed her boss of one of his largest gangs of lum-
